WOMEN ALONE DEMAND LYNCHERS BE PUNISHED

Governor Sends Weak Message Of Regret

Members Of Mob "Identified," Sheriff Silent.

CLARKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 23.—(Herald.) Denounced by Colquhoun County League of Women Voters was the lynching of Lindley Coleman, Negro, was made the subject of investigation by a grand jury Tuesday. The members of the mob were arrested, and charges of conspiracy to murder and kidnap were sworn out for four persons.

Judge W. A. Alcorn, before whom the Negro was tried, called a special session of the grand jury and when it assembled today he exacted a pledge from the grand jurors that they would be returned against any person found involved, regardless of his standing in the community.

CLARKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 20.—The good spirit of Christmas morning was forgotten in the town of Clarksville, Miss., today, and brutality and lawlessness reigned with a frenzied mob of white men lynched a colored youth who a jury had just a few hours before acquitted of a charge of killing Governor C. Nicholas, a planter's store manager, October 15 last.

The stir created by the murder was passed almost as quickly as the crime. The community no efforts were made by authorities to apprehend the mob. The governor sent a weak message expressing regret that he would not suggest that he would act.

The only definite signs of effort to bring the criminals to justice came from the County League of Women Voters of Colquhoun County.

Stepped At Jail Door

The victim of the mob was Lindley Coleman. He was just one of the colored citizens held in connection with the slaying of the store manager. Member description of the lynching of Coleman state that he was taken to the jail by Sheriff S. W. Glass, within the shadow of the prison from which he was taken, after a jury had declared him innocent.

With little ceremony, the whites took Coleman to the jail and killed his body with bullets.

Sheriff Silent

An attempt to get some information that might lead to the arrest of the members of the mob was frustrated by the silence of the sheriff. Sheriff Glass turned aside all questions relating to the affair, by declaring that he had no information.

It was with the greatest regret that the members of the grand jury, who had been found not guilty of the lynching of Coleman after a trial of two days, were taken to the jail and killed.

Governor Comments

"It is with the greatest regret that I have learned of the tragedy which has befallen the young man who was the victim of the lynching of Coleman after a trial of two days, were taken to the jail and killed."

Klan Thrives in Louisiana

Associated Negro Press
NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 23.—Despite the fact that the last state legislative session passed a law which forbids the Klan by the passing of the anti-segregation law which compels all secret societies to file with the state a list of their members under oath that organization is flourishing more strongly than ever in this city. Fanatics are obliged by so-called imperial representatives and their memberships placed in the hands of the Klan by the passing of the law of the State of Louisiana. DARROW WAS WRONG

Associated Negro Press
MIDDLETON, Conn., Dec. 23.—In a speech before the legislature in New York a week ago, Clarence Darrow, the famous criminal attorney, declared that there were more maroons than intelligent people in the United States. But, according to Prof. H. B. Rogers, professor of psychology at Wesleyan University, there are only between 4,000,000 and ten million persons from the country who may be classed as maroons because they are the mental standard assigned to the classification. There is a higher class, whom Prof. Rogers calls "half maroons," numbering 50,000,000. Even this figure, however, would not be sufficient to support Mr. Darrow's charge.

100 YEAR OLD WOMAN LETS SECRET OUT

Associated Negro Press
NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 23.—An interesting insight into the feeling of the colored people in respect to the foibles of the present was given by Mrs. Margaret Appleton, 71 years old, who, upon being interviewed as to what she thought of present-day habits and dress among the young, declared that she collected they were alright and that the youngsters today were merely doing what the old folks desired in past years. "What's all this talk," she said, "about modern life being mad? I understand that the old folks are always criticizing the modern girl. They seem to forget the girls who are enjoying the free freedom we used to crave. Why, I remember the time when the idea of going to a dance was a week was a great event, and I remember a lot of girls who used to wish they could go out on a week or as many times as they wanted."

SEEK TO RETURN WHIP TO GEORGIA PRISONS

Associated Negro Press
ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 23.—Members of the sub-committee of the state legislature which is investigating conditions in Georgia prison camps have found many evidences of various kinds of brutality and cruelty, but report lack of evidence of special tortures which the wardens of the camps have charged with inflicting before the committee two weeks ago.

The members of the committee express themselves in favor of the return of the lash, abolished under the Georgia constitution of 1901, to the camps. They were reported to have decided to recommend that whips be distributed with the state camps established in their stead. It is known that a majority of the members also favor the return of flogging for unruly prisoners.

One of the interesting sidelights in their report is the statement that the committee's reflections on the Negro, the members find that "severe members of the movement are obliged to go to Georgia camps, where a large percentage of those confined are the Negroes, and that they are always treated and untrained to the discipline of society." That comes from Georgia's legislative committee, which has maintained the lynching record.

Gibson's Chocolate Box Revue is a festive entertainer, at the Booker Washington Theatre this week, and will prove a happy place of amusement to usher in the Xmas cheer.

The production is unusual and unique in as much as there is only one speaking act in the whole show. It's a mixture of singing, dancing and novelty, yet there is more real fun than this theatre has presented in a long time. The chorus is made up of a bunch of well drilled, well costumed and good looking girls who can win applause on their own account.

Gibson shows his ingenuity by springing his show with a number of surprise novelties which keep attention at a high pitch. Among these are hisown juniors, Corinne and Albert, whose singing and dancing take the house by storm. Then there's back, acrobatic and fancy dancers who are top notch. One female blues singer turns out to be a clever dancer and comicalist as well. Fats Johnson is the leading-fun maker, but they're all in on keeping up the merriment. It's a good show, well liked, and will wind up in overflow crowds here.

FAMEVILLE MEET HERE

Four acts of fameville will make this program at the Booker Washington next week beginning Monday. The principals are all of feature act reputation and the combination should prove a winner. One McPherson, a blues singer, is the only singer. Johnson and Lee, man and woman, have a singing and dancing act mixed with some peppy cross-fire conversation. Snow and Snow, another mixed team, do in struttin' featuring the violin. Prince and Connie, a male troupe of crackjack dancers. A special matinee will be given on New Year's day at 3 p. m. Monday will be "Pay Day" and there are a few things left, the order for which is included in the envelopes, with coupons, trading stamps and money.

"The Reminds and His Rounders" will be the attraction of the day. Theatre next week beginning Sunday matinee. There are several clever performers in this attraction.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

MERRY XMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR FOR THE MOVIES

The motion picture theatres join in wishing their patrons a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. The exhibitors submit some fine productions during the present year, and many have extra big price to be brought to you on each after showing in the expensive houses. The theatre men are all satisfied, however, as you have appreciated them and during the coming year nothing will be too good to offer you.

THE COMET

Rudolph Valentino in "Cobra" is the attraction of the Comet Theatre on Christmas day and Saturday. It is a story of a man who falls a victim to woman fascination and "The Golden Princess" will be shown Sunday.

"The Golden Princess" Betty Bronson is the leading star in this picture of the early California gold rush days. Jack Jones will be presented in "Durand of the Bad Lands" on Monday. Bebe Daniels in "Lovers In Quarantine" on Tuesday. Henry Walthall and Edith Roberts in "The Bowery Bishop" on Wednesday.

Lionel Barrymore will be presented in "The Wrongdoers" on Thursday only. Thrilling scenes in New York factored artists' colony, Greenwich Village, are enacted in this picture which concerns a mysterious hand of men whose aim is to bring justice to the suffering.

"The Wrongdoers" will be featured Gloria Swanson in "Stage Struck" on Friday and next Saturday. It is love, laughs, romance, rascals, gasps and novelty. We're into a fascinating story of a girl's bad for fame behind the foot lights.

THE STAR

"Morals of Men" is the Star Theatre attraction for Xmas day and Saturday. It tells a graphic and compelling story of the lives of four people who though worlds apart, are equally are thrown together in a tangled web of love and hate that keeps one interested throughout the picture. Conway Tearle and Agnes Ayres are the featured stars. "The Sporting Chance" will be the Sunday special. Dorothy Phillips and Lou Tellegen are leading stars in this picture that tells of the trials and tribulations of a young society girl torn between a rich playboy and a poor boy. Her father and the impetuous young man and the indignities of the villain who has sought to ruin her father and her father's name of foul. The racing scene at the end of the picture is a thriller in itself. "The Sporting Chance" will be the Sunday special. THE JESTER

"The Girl Who Wouldn't Work" will be the Jester Theatre feature on Xmas day. It's the story of a girl who showed her father an actress' smart-alegance and found it in the most amusing fashion. "The Girl Who Wouldn't Work" will be the Saturday attraction.

The lessons of the quarter gather about Paul. The review therefore will have to do with his character, service and teaching. A good review of the view is to study the salient points with the leading teachings of each lesson. The following suggestions are offered:

October 1.
Paul took advantage of the opportunity to preach the gospel to the Jews in the synagogue at Antioch and to such of the Gentiles and Jews as were found in the market place, calling upon all to repent because of God's appointed day of judgment by Jesus Christ.

October 11.
Though compelled to work for a living while getting a foothold in Corinth, Paul resolutely refused to let anything come in the way of his mission. He even in the face of violent opposition at this time of his great need, God sustained him by giving him God's own strength to the help of His servants in their greatest need.

October 18.
The Spirit's best gift is love. It is the basis of all spiritual qualities and also because every believer can have and exercise it.

October 25.
Paul with dauntless courage preached the gospel at Ephesus, and here his preaching resulted in a glorious awakening. Where the gospel is preached in the power of the Holy Spirit men are converted, and turn from their wicked ways, even giving up strong kinds of business.

November 1.
The Christian has a strong enemy in the devil, a personal being called the devil. He must meet him in offensive and defensive warfare. His strength Paul received from the Holy Spirit. The way to get strength to wage the conflict is by prayer to God.

November 8.
Paul with undaunted courage pressed on toward Jerusalem, knowing that death and affliction awaited him. As he took leave of the Ephesian elders he warned them of the false teachers who would come to corrupt the church. He also warned them that he had declared the whole counsel of God.

November 15.
Despite Paul's eagerness to reconcile the people in Jerusalem, he was arrested. Because of his passion to reach the people he witnessed to the Jews who were striving to kill him.

November 22.
Though falsely accused, and arraigned before the wicked governor, Paul's defense was so convincing that he was acquitted of himself in such a way as to win the favor of Felix.

November 29.
Paul defended himself before Agrippa, and here he showed that he was a true Christian, as he proved by his Scriptures as to almost personal acquaintance with Agrippa to become a Christian.

December 6.
Paul's behavior on the voyage and in the shipboard display of his divine faith in God as well as his remarkable bravery and common sense.

December 13.
Paul Paul's arrival in Rome he was greeted by the brethren who came to meet him. Paul was intensely happy to see his loved, trusted intimacy.

December 20.
If the summary of Paul's life was the lesson used on Sunday, the people should be the vision of the veteran soldier of the cross, near the close of his life, declaring, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me at that day."

If the Christmas lesson was used for this day, the method of review should be to picture the wise, noble, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, seeking to kill him, and the finding of Jesus in Bethlehem.

Our Thanks
Our thanks should be as fervent for services received as our petitions for necessities sought.

Must Enjoy Work
No one who does not enjoy work can truly enjoy anything else—Baptist.

JUSTICE VS JIM CROW

By William Pickens

Associated Negro Press
We acknowledge the good intentions of the few white people who expect, sometimes, somehow, to do justice to black people under the Jim Crow system and we sympathize (though we ought not to) with the single-minded section of black people who hope, somewhere, to receive justice and a square deal under a Jim Crow system—but we protest against the system of both of them. The union of fire and water is as possible as the union of justice and Jim Crow. What will destroy or quench the other. In the first place it contradicts experience; there is not a single Jim Crow system on earth that does justice to the outcast minority. In the second place it contradicts reason for the same scoundrel sentiment that will segregate a group, will deny that group equality after it is segregated. For example, the sentiment that all colored children from the primary school to the university should be segregated is a sentiment that they are unworthy to be in it—that same sentiment will deny them the right to travel, to work, to live, to be equal to the accommodations for white travelers, to work, to live, to be equal to the accommodations for white workers. The only place where they are unworthy to be is in that same sentiment will deny them the right to travel, to work, to live, to be equal to the accommodations for white travelers, to work, to live, to be equal to the accommodations for white workers.

COOLIDGE AND THE NEGRO

By William Pickens

Associated Negro Press
The President's 1925 message to Congress was a good one for the Negro. It is worthy of New England good-heartedness. But his message should not be taken as a part of his message may bear against his implied Congressional duty to the Negro. The first part of the message seems to say that what a state can do for the Negro is not what the state does not do it. At least he does not make it clear, under his words, whether the business of Congress to do a needed thing, like breaking up lynching, is the states will not do it cannot do it.

What Equality Is This?

By Jesse O. Thomas

Associated Negro Press
This is an excellent view, of the rights confronting the nation, with very few significant suggestions as to the remedies. But that it is a national message will do no harm; for it is much more of a sermon than a state paper.
The message is a good survey, a sort of general view, of the difficulties confronting the nation, with very few significant suggestions as to the remedies. But that it is a national message will do no harm; for it is much more of a sermon than a state paper.

WILSON DAWSON, President

United States—though the degree of difference may vary. In some places it is a little better—in many places it is a little worse. Even the state schools for the separate "higher" education of the Negro show the same inferiority of the Negro school system.

The Virginia Assembly, fostered by the above named society, according to resolutions adopted by the Hampton chapter of this association on the 27th of November:

"Be it resolved by three hundred citizens of Elizabeth County, Virginia, in mass meeting assembled, that we protest against the doctrine and teaching of social equality, with its resultant tendency toward racial amalgamation and the indiscriminate mixing of whites and blacks in public assemblies, as fostered, fashioned and fastened at Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute."

"And be it further resolved that we record ourselves as requesting our representatives in the general assembly of Virginia, Capt. George Alvin Masonburg, to introduce a bill in the next session of the general assembly of Virginia, prohibiting the mixing of audiences at public assemblies."

The State of Virginia has established ample precedent for Hampton Institute in maintaining a white principal and administrative board. The colored public schools of Richmond and Lynchburg have white principals. Many state institutions, including the school for the colored deaf and blind, the tuberculosis sanatorium, hospital for the insane have white heads, instructors, administrative officers. The chief argument of the meeting held in Hampton on the 27th admitted, even boasted that they wish to separate the races. If they do, they had never studied conditions there at close range and did not wish to separate the races. Personally, still they were willing to go on record as asking the general assembly to pass a law to that condition which does not exist.

This Anglo-Saxon Club is insisting on being given the privilege of going to Hampton, a Negro educational institution and compelling the administration to provide them with quarters where they want them and under whatever circumstances that they wish to secure them. In the case of the Negro, it is a matter of life and death. They do not want to accept the consideration accorded them by Dr. Gregg and the Hampton people, it would seem logical and easier to remain away. Is the Ogeen Auditorium at Hampton "the Negroes' place?" What kind of equality is this?

The physique and physiognomy, as well as its complexion, resembles the K. K. K. If it continues to function, what will be left for the white man to do among and for the P. V.?

A rainy day and nothing to do helps literature. Even the books of the day on the parlor table get perused.
